Hello, faithful readers! How'd you like this latest issue? Question of the month: Which goes fastest—Jabberjaws talking, Speed Buggy racing, or Captain Caveman flying? Any guesses?

Melanie Enselmo
Seaford, New York

Dear DC Comics,

How come you don't make any comics about the Power Puff Girls? I like your Cow and Chicken comics better than the cartoon show because I don't have to hear those loud voices. But I think you should have Power Puff Girls star in some comics stories because they are the best show on TV.

Hmmm... You know, Melanie is right! We should make some comics starring the POWER PUFF GIRLS! Stay tuned, Melanie, and check out the next few issues—you just may get your wish! (Go, girls, go!)

Tony Fuller
Lynwood, California

Hello, Cartoon Network,

You all do an excellent job putting all the old-school comics together. The Herculoids, The Mighty Heroes, Birdman, Mighty Mightor, Arabian Knights, Samson, Sinbad the Sailor, etc.—they were the best!

I am looking for a comic book, shirt, poster or video on a character called "Fearless Fly." Fearless Fly stayed in a matchbox. He was sort of nerdy. But when he put on glasses, he became super strong. Can you give me any information about him? I used to watch him in the early '60s with shows like Space Ghost, Frankenstein Jr. and The Impossibles.

Thanks for writing, Tony. We dig those groovy super-hero shows of times past, too! We're trying to track down any records on the Fearless Fly. So far, no luck! (Are you sure it was produced by Hanna-Barbera?) But our people at CARTOON NETWORK are on it—so if we find any info we'll put it in a future issue. Anyone else have a cartoon they'd like to know about? If you ask us, we'll ask the experts!

Dear DC Comics,

Space Ghost acts like he's pretty tough. Do you think he could take on the entire DC Universe? Here is a picture I drew of Space Ghost using his power bands to fight the Super Friends, also known as the Justice League of America. This is just an imaginary drawing since everyone is really a good guy.

Wow! That sounds like a pretty good idea for a video game, Henry! Although Space Ghost is pretty strong, I don't think he could take on the entire Justice League at once. If Jan, Jace and Blip fought The Wonder Twins and Gleek, I wonder who would win? Now, that's a fight!

LETTER OF THE MONTH:

Taso Mastorakis
Selick, Vermont

Thanks, Taso—but are you laughing "at" our comic or are you laughing "with" our comic?

—Dave Roman

NEXT MONTH

Next Issue: You begged. You pleaded. You sent us letters. Finally, the issue you've been waiting for—mystery madness starring Scooby, Shaggy, and SCRAPPY-DOO! Plus, a special bonus: Goober and the Ghostchasers! Puppy Power!

This issue's cover was drawn by Manny Galan, inked by Andrew Pepoy, and colored by Dave Tanguay. Thanks, guys—you're the greatest guys that ever
